

NANCY JOHNSON LOOKS LIKE A WINNER

Despite some reports to the contrary at NHS yesterday, it looks like Republican incumbent Nancy Johnson (left) will hold onto her seat in the Congress after an amazingly close race with Democratic longshot challenger Charlotte Koskoff (right).

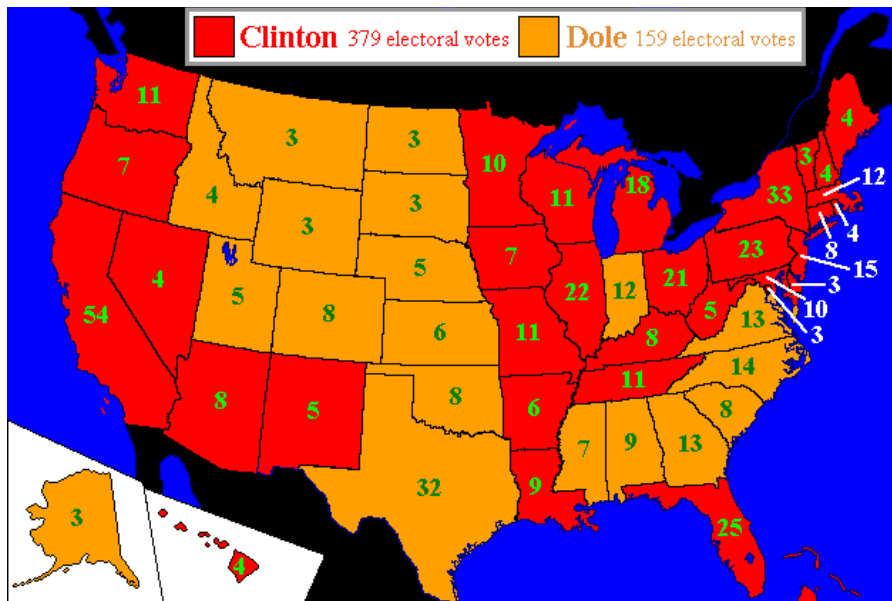

PRESIDENTIAL WRAP-UP

Nationwide Popular Vote

- Bill Clinton 45,341,398
- Bob Dole 37,691,548
- Ross Perot 7,825,797
- Ralph Nader 577,475
- Harry Browne 463,859
- Howard Phillips 177,991
- John Hagelin 109,002
- Monica Moorehead 28,306
- Marsha Feinland 19,146
- James Harris 11,644
- Charles Collins 7,234
- "None of These" 5,281
- Dennis Peron 5,144
- Mary Hollis 3,364
- Jerry White 2,380
- Diane Templin 1,846
- Earl Dodge 1,158
- Peter Crane 1,105

Source: The Associated Press

More detailed election results will be included in the next issue of The Living Room Times, which will probably come out either sometime next week or else on Monday of the week after that, which would be November 18. In addition to the election stuff, that Times edition will include a wrap-up of the fall sports seasons and tournaments, and a preview of the Thanksgiving football game, among other things.